

14th General Conference

Responsible Development in a Polycentric World
Inequality, Citizenship and the Middle Classes

23-26 June 2014, Bonn · www.gc2014.org

Invitation to public events at the EADI General Conference on “Responsible Development in a Polycentric World”, 23 – 26 June 2014, Bonn

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The programme of EADI’s General Conference to be held between 23 -26 June 2014, has lined up a series of interesting events featuring international speakers on the different conference days. These lectures provide forums open to the general public where the experts deliver enlightening talks on contemporary aspects of development such as inequality, the emerging middle class and sustainable development which are discussed at depth in the conference. Below is a brief schedule of the events detailing the date, speakers, title of delivery and location:

23 June 2014 at 17:00 hours

European Journal of Development Research (EJDR) 25 Year Lecture at The Gustav Stresemann Institute

Keynote Speaker: Professor Raphael Kaplinsky, The Open University U.K.

Lecture: Sustainable growth in a globalizing world – not whether, but rather how to participate in the global economy

Please register at <http://www.gc2014.org/plenary-sessions/the-european-journal-of-development-research-at-25-jubilee-lecture/>

24 June 2014 at 20:00 hours

Dudley Seers Lecture at The Gustav Stresemann Institute

Keynote Speaker: Professor François Bourguignon, Paris School of Economics

Lecture: 50 Years of development and development economics

Please register at <http://www.gc2014.org/plenary-sessions/dudley-seers-lecture/>

We warmly invite you to be present at one or at best all of the gatherings as well as to spread the word in your networks to draw the attention and engagement of all citizens!

These events are a part of the event series within the partnership of the City of Bonn and EADI, please consult <http://eadi40.tumblr.com/> for further information.

Best wishes,

EADI General Conference Team (team@gc2014.org)